2.2. The Competition shall be open to wine producers and importers (hereinafter: “contestants”), irrespective of whether they are exhibiting at the ENOEXPO® 2021 International Wine Trade Fair (hereinafter: “ENOEXPO® Trade Fair”).

2.3. Contestants shall apply online at www.enoexpo.krakow.pl.

2.4. Contestants may submit samples in more than one category.

2.5. Samples that are not labelled or are labelled incorrectly shall be excluded from the Competition.

2.6. The samples shall become the property of the Organizer.

2.7. Once all the conditions of participation have been met, it shall not be possible to withdraw from the Competition. The competition fee is non-reimbursable.

2.8. The Competition shall be held on 8 October 2021.

2.9. The Jury of the Competition (hereinafter: “the Jury”) shall be made up of several evaluation committees. Each committee shall consist of five jurors headed by a chairperson. The number of committees shall depend on the number of samples submitted to the Competition.

2.10. The Jury shall be composed of professionals qualified to assess the samples: experts/sommeliers not affiliated with the wine/cider/mead producers or distributors taking part in the Competition, distributors who do not exhibit their wines in the Competition, as well as industry media representatives.

2.11. The Jury shall evaluate samples under the following categories:

I. dry and semi-dry white wines (up to 18 g of sugar)

*The price of wines available on the Polish market is listed as the gross retail price (the importers' recommended selling price).

2.12. For wines that are not available on the Polish market, the conversion rate of 1 EUR = 10 PLN shall be adopted, which represents the average recommended selling price, including all the fees and the importer's margin.

2.13. Each Jury member shall assess the samples on a scale from 0 to 100 pts. The final score shall be the average of all scores awarded by the Jurors. The top 30% of samples with the highest rating shall be awarded medals:

- ENOEXPO Gold medal – top 5%,

- ENOEXPO Silver Medal – top 10% (following those awarded the Gold Medal),
- ENOEXPO Bronze Medal – top 15% (following those awarded the Gold and the Silver Medals).

The medal-eligible scores shall be established once all the samples have been assessed

2.14. The sample evaluation shall be anonymous and samples shall be served from covered up bottles labelled only with a number. The Jury shall assess the wines based on the pre-set criteria and scoring system included in the wine tasting charts. The completed charts shall serve as the archive and permanent record of the Competition and shall be kept by the Organizer.

2.15. The Jury may decide not to award a medal in a given category or to award special prizes and additional distinctions.

2.16. The Jury may reject a sample. In such case it shall specify the reasons and the enrolment fee shall be reimbursed.

2.17. The Jury session shall be held in secret and its decisions shall be final.

2.18. The results of the Competition shall be published on the Organizer's website (www.enoexpo.krakow.pl) and social media, and made available to the media and industry associations, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of 26 October 1982 on upbringing in sobriety and counteracting alcoholism (consolidated text: JoL of 2002, no. 147, item 1231).

2.19. Only the medal winners' ranking and scores shall be publicly announced; other contestants shall receive their score from the Organizer upon individual petition.
